"House in Estepona with typical Andalusian style located very close to schools, supermarkets, shops and just a 15-minute walk from the city's promenade and the beach. The house has 3 bedrooms, a bathroom, a living-dining room, a garage, a garden and an attic completely ready to enjoy the sun and build an extension or close and have another living space in the house, in addition the house has an annex with a separate entrance (ideal for vacation rentals or as an individual residence) with a bedroom, kitchen and bathroom.

Estepona is one of the most familiar destinations in Spain. The many cobbled streets of its old town are off-limits to traffic and can therefore be safely explored on foot. The city has 17 beaches that line its 21-kilometre-long coastline, many of which are patrolled by rescuers in summer."
